Canadian Rockies

By Michael Holland

One of my top ten favorite places to visit is the Canadian Rockies. I was fortunate enough to work there as a tour guide for 6 years and I fell in love with incredible scenery there. Words cannot describe the unparalleled beauty that waits for you as you journey by motorcoach or train through the mountains. Every corner you turn seems to be more beautiful than the last. Snow-capped mountains soar into the sky and the emerald green and turquoise colored lakes glisten in the mid-day sun. For a truly unique experience, I recommend taking a heli-hiking trip to the top of the mountains. It is more of a leisurely stroll than a full hike as it is geared towards people of all ages.

The town I enjoy the most is Jasper, located in the heart of Jasper National Park. This quaint area is set amidst the rugged mountains, rivers and lakes that attract nature lovers from near and far. Banff National Park and Lake Louise are probably better known and the views are just as spectacular.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad built hotels in the late 1800's to accommodate the guest that traveled through the area. These hotels still stand today and are the premier properties of the Fairmont Hotels. I would recommend staying at either the Banff Springs Hotel or Chateau Lake Louise - or both.

Motorcoach tours usually start and end in Calgary and will include a drive along the Icefield Parkway. For those with a little more time, I suggest you continue to Vancouver and Victoria in British Columbia. The Butchart Gardens are a must-see for those that love flowers.

In addition to a motorcoach tour, you can travel by train. The Rocky Mountaineer and the Canadian National trains cross over the mountains and either start or end in Vancouver. The Canadian National travels overnight as you dine and sleep on the cars, while the Rocky Mountaineer stops for the evening and you stay in a hotel.

Either way you travel, you will not be disappointed in your visit to the Canadian Rockies. We work with a number of tour operators that offer great trips there including Tauck, Collette Vacations and Globus. Call today and book your vacation with Long's Travel.

The following local Motorcoach Tours depart from Cedar Knolls and other locations. Trips include transportation, admission, lunch, taxes and gratuities (unless otherwise detailed on the itinerary). Please call to reserve space, then within 7 days send a check along with your name, address and phone number to our office. We will send you a confirmation by mail or E-mail. We look forward to seeing you on board.
