Visit the quaint seaside resort of Cape May and experience the charm of the Victorian Era during the festive Christmas Season. See the beautifully restored and tastefully decorated homes and Inns and learn about Victorian traditions and how we observe them today. Ride the Holley Trolley and see the city decorated with thousands of lights and enjoy a production of Scrooge at a local dinner theater.

Itinerary

Wednesday, December 7

Depart from Cedar Knolls for the journey to Victorian Cape May. There will be time for lunch before taking a tour of two of Cape May's historical Inns, each decorated for the Christmas season. The inns have their own unique ambiance and tells stories of by-gone days. Then check in to your overnight accommodations. Tonight, board the Holly Trolley for a view of the city draped in swags of evergreens and decorated with lights and bows. Listen to stories of Christmas past and sing holiday songs. Dinner this evening is at Elaine's Dinner Theater, where you will attend a musical production of Dickens memorable Christmas story, "Scrooge".

Thursday, December 8

Following a leisurely breakfast, tour the Emlen Physick estate where costumed interpreters will bring to life Christmas of 1890. Learn about Victorian traditions and customs of the Christmas season. There will be time to visit the Carriage House Gallery Exhibits and shop for souvenirs. This afternoon, depart for the Historic Smithville for lunch and Christmas shopping. Then it's back home with great memories of your Cape May Christmas trip, arriving about 5:00.
