

"Christmas 1944"

In Bethlehem, PA

Thursday, December 1, 2011

Travel back in time with this heart-warming musical that tells the story of a Bethlehem resident who works at Bethlehem Steel while her husband is away at war. Timeless Christmas classics and Bethlehem's rich history make this dinner show a "must-see" for the holiday season. Also included is a tour of town to see the holiday lights and the "Star of Bethlehem". And finally, there will be time to start your Christmas shopping at Chriskindlmarkt. Lunch is included.

*If you would prefer to enjoy a leisurely guided walking tour of the Steel Factory area INSTEAD of shopping at Chriskindlmarkt, please add $10.00 per person and note it on the application.
