The World Famous

Glenn Miller Orchestra

Wednesday, September 12, 2012

Glenn Miller & His Orchestra had more hit records in one year than anybody in the history of the recording industry. Their recording of "Chattanooga Choo-Choo" garnered the Orchestra the first Gold Record ever awarded to a performing artist. All big bands of the era had a signature song; one they signed on and off with at each engagement. The theme of Glenn Miller & His Orchestra was "Moonlight Serenade," and it is still used as the signature song for the Glenn Miller Orchestra today.

In June of 2011, the Glenn Miller Orchestra celebrated their 55th Anniversary of continuous touring and is currently under the direction of Gary Tole. A delicious family-style meal is included, complete with their signature pot roast, chicken, salad, potatoes, veggies and dessert.

Depart: Cedar Knolls at 9:30 am
Return: Approximately 5:30 pm
Menu: family-style meal; cash bar is available
