

Lancaster Countryside Amish Tour

Tuesday, June 12, 2012

Head west over the rolling hills of Pennsylvania into Lancaster County, home to the Amish and Mennonite communities, where time has stood still for centuries. Experience the beauty of Lancaster and learn about the lifestyle of the Amish people on this interesting trip. Step back in time and see life as it was in the 18th century – without electricity, phones or motorized vehicles. See how these “Plain Folk” live the simple life as the modern world surrounds them. You will visit an old Amish home, dine on their typical food and have time to browse through the shops at the Kitchen Kettle Village. Later you will drive through the countryside past Amish homes and farms.
