Join us for a day of Remembrance at the

September 11th Memorial

Tuesday, March 20, 2012

The National September 11 Memorial, opened September 2011 on the 10th Anniversary. The memorial plaza sits on eight of the 16 acres that comprise the redeveloped World Trade Center site, and consists of twin memorial reflecting pools in the footprints of the original twin towers, around which are inscribed the 2,982 names of the people who died in the attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, and on Feb. 26, 1993, when six people died in a truck bomb explosion. The names are arranged by what organizers call “meaningful adjacencies,” rather than alphabetically. The rest of the plaza consists of more than 150 trees and the Memorial Museum, which is slated to open in September 2012. After time for quiet reflection, proceed to Little Italy for lunch. Later you can visit Ferrara’s Bakery for delicious treats.
