Join our Christmas trip this year as we visit Bethlehem, PA. During your visit, see the “putz” which tells the story of Christ's birth through music, narration, tiny lights and small, antique German figurines. Tour the Trees of Historic Bethlehem, a city tradition, where you will see more than 20 trees beautifully decorated for the holidays. See the Star of Bethlehem on a night tour and spend time shopping at the Christkindlmarkt. Don't miss out on this wonderful tour.

Itinerary

Thursday, December 4

Depart this morning for the short ride to Bethlehem, PA - the “Christmas City”. On arrival, visit the “putz” a sound and light show which tells the story of Christ's birth through music, narration, tiny lights and small, antique German figurines. Then see the Trees of Bethlehem, located at three different historic venues. Immerse yourself in the spirit of the holidays as you see over 20 Christmas trees beautifully decorated by members of the local Bethlehem Garden Club. There will be time for lunch in downtown Bethlehem. Please note there will be some walking involved to visit these sites. You will visit the Moravian Museum, Single Sisters Home and the Kemerer Museum. Later, check into your hotel at the Wind Creek Casino Hotel. Later, take a tour of town to see the holiday lights and the “Star of Bethlehem”. Dinner is included.

Friday, December 5

Following a leisurely breakfast, start your Christmas shopping at Christkindlmarkt - an indoor market with traditional gifts and Christmas decorations. Or if you prefer, you may visit the Christmas City Village, with charming, holiday-themed wooden huts that are filled with unique holiday gift ideas. This afternoon, depart for home with great memories of your Christmas trip. Arrive home about 4:00 pm.
